What is this trip?

A fresh wind of faith is needed in Western Europe. Come to France and explore the challenges of sharing the gospel in a place where secularism reigns and the Bible is seen as a thing of the past. Engage people while you learn from missionaries experienced in communicating truth in a post-Christian climate.

Explore your long-term calling by going short-term. Learn more about yourself while using your gifts and talents in an environment different from your own. Learn more about the world as you worship with and serve alongside people in Paris and its suburbs.

World Team France short-term trips give you hands-on experience in cross-cultural ministry while furthering long-term church-planting efforts. And you'll experience life-on-life discipleship by a missionary mentor.
